

News from Orcutt Academy's K-8 Campus in Los Alamos

2017-2018, Edition 30 | Week of April 9, 2018

Principal's Message

Hope everyone had a nice Spring Break! As a positive note to start this newsletter, I'm sharing the photo at right of OAK-8 student Zane Waffle, who shaved his head last week as a tribute to fellow student Jill Mott, who is going through treatments for cancer. We are inspired by your gesture, Zane!

Meantime, I have a couple of important items to mention this week.

On Monday at 7:00 p.m., OAK-8 parent Hannah Rubalcava is presenting an Arts Attack Information Night for parents interested in helping implement the visual arts lessons at our school. Mrs. Rubalcava will share more about Arts

Attend and show parents how they can help with classroom lessons. The meeting will be at the Orcutt Union School District Instructional Media Center, which is Building H on the district office complex at 500 Dyer Street in Old Orcutt. No RSVP is required -- just come on by to learn more.

This coming Friday night (April 13) is a big evening for both schools in Los Alamos. To raise funds for the purchase and installation of a water filtration system for student use, Olga Reed's Parents in Action group has planned a delicious Mexican dinner that will be available from 4:00-8:00. Burritos, tacos, nachos and more will be sold. Meantime, the OAK-8 PTSA will be offering a free Family Movie Night from 6:00-8:00 in the gym. The bottom line about Friday night is that you have the opportunity to enjoy dinner and a movie -- all for a most worthwhile cause!

Have a great week!

Joe Dana, Principal

Dance Performance

Students in grades TK-6 put on a terrific dance performance for parents and family members last Monday night. P.E. teacher Tracy Levey, who has been infusing dance into P.E. instruction, did a wonderful job organizing the event. The best part was when parents and students danced together in the finale!

Colorful Jog-A-Thon

Students gave their all during our school's annual Jog-A-Thon last Wednesday morning. The Jog-A-Thon is a PTSA fund-raiser, and students are asked to get pledges for our PTSA. In addition, the Jog-A-Thon raises school spirit, as students, parents, and staff cheer for and encourage each other. Special thanks to PTSA Jog-A-Thon Chair Jewelee Matautia and to all of the parents who helped with the event!

Reminder for families: If your child will be out of school for a predetermined reason and you are requesting an independent study packet, please be sure to give Reyes and your child's teacher at least one week's notice and preferably two week's notice. Teachers need adequate time to put together work for a packet. If not enough notice is given, we may not be able to issue a packet and the absences may be termed unexcused.
