School News

Students and staff got a cluck out of the feathered friend at right who wandered onto our campus this past week. Thanks to Mrs. Clayton for taking this photo!

The Orcutt Academy is now accepting applications for enrollment for the 2019-2020 school year. If you have children to enroll, please be sure to fill out an enrollment application for each child. And if you know people interested in OA, please encourage them to attend an information night/meeting, as they will receive valuable information on school programming as well as our lottery and admissions procedures. For a schedule of information nights/meetings as well as the online enrollment application, please click here.

OAK-8 families are encouraged to become members of the Orcutt Children's Arts Foundation. Membership is just $10 for individuals. Envelopes are available in the school office, and members also can sign up at the OCAF website here.
